SUMMARY

As a distinguished senior accounting student, I bring a solid foundation in financial reporting, analytical skills, and practical accounting applications. My professional journey includes internships and academic support roles, where I honed my expertise in financial statements, reconciliation, and student guidance in mathematics and statistics. I have further enriched my profile through specialised certifications, innovative projects. Complemented by leadership roles, memberships, and long-term community service, I embody a commitment to professional growth, ethical responsibility, and societal contribution.
